Vacations Don't Have to Be Expensive to be Memorable & Fun

CREATE A VACATION BUDGET – Decide how much money you can afford for a summer vacation. Start by reviewing your income, expenses and debt obligations and setting aside money for emergency expenses. Then decide how much you can direct towards a summer vacation. This becomes the baseline amount for your travel, lodging, meals and amusement.

INVOLVE YOUR FAMILY – Once you've determined how much money you can afford for a vacation, include your family members to decide where to go and what to do. If your budget is limited, consider an at-home vacation like visiting tourist attractions in your local area.

RESEARCH YOUR VACATION OPTIONS – Get advice from friends and relatives who've traveled to places you plan to visit. They can help direct you to places that are fun and affordable.

PLAN YOUR ITINERARY IN ADVANCE – Map out your daily activities and routes to ensure that you're staying on-course and on budget. Unplanned activities can often amount to unplanned spending.

HAVE A CREDIT PLAN – Check credit card balances on your accounts well before you travel. Make sure they are paid off or under half the limit that you can charge. Credit cards are helpful on the road. They're safer than cash because they can be replaced if lost or stolen. But they can make it easy to overspend. If you need cash, use your ATM or debit card.

If you would like to discuss your vacation budget with someone, you can take advantage of the Accel program, a free financial education and counseling program of Catholic Federal. Accel counselors are available by calling 1-877-33ACCEL (332-2235) or visit them on the web at www.accelservices.org.
