The Credit Union's bylaws provide that "once a member, always a member" so that even if you retire, change or move to a new location outside of the field of membership, you may remain a member of the Credit Union.

Becoming a Member: To become a member of the Credit Union, you must complete a Membership Card and open a Prime Daily Savings Account.

Share Insurance: The Credit Union's funds are insured by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), which is the governing body of all federal credit unions. Share accounts in federally insured credit unions are insured up to the Standard Maximum Share Insurance Amount (SMSIA), $250,000.

You may obtain additional separate coverage on multiple accounts, but only if you have different ownership interests or rights in different types of accounts and you properly complete account forms and applications. For example, if you have a regular share account and an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) at the same credit union, the regular share account is insured up to $250,000 and the IRA is separately insured up to $250,000. However, if you have a regular share account, a share certificate, and a share draft account, all in your own name, you will not have additional coverage. Those accounts will be added together and insured up to $250,000 as your individual account. Additionally, shares denominated in foreign currencies are insured as outlined in NCUA Rules and Regulations.

Coverdell Education Saving Accounts, formerly education IRAs, are insured as irrevocable trust accounts and will be added to a member's other irrevocable trust accounts and insured up to the SMSIA. Roth IRAs will be added together with traditional IRAs and insured up to $250,000.

Additional coverage is available on revocable trust or payable on death accounts on a per beneficiary basis. A co-owner's interest in all joint accounts in the same credit union will be added together and insured up to the SMSIA.

Signature Card Membership: I hereby make application for membership in and agree to conform to the Bylaws, as amended, of Catholic Federal Credit Union. I certify that: I am within the field of membership of this Credit Union; the information provided on this application is true and correct; and my signature on this card applies to all accounts under my name at this Credit Union. I also agree to be bound to the terms and conditions of any account that I have in the Credit Union now or in the future.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify: (1) That the number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number; and (2) that I am not subject to backup withholding under the provisions of Section 3506(a)(1)(c) of the Internal Revenue Code either because I have not been notified that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding. (Instruction: If you have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding due to payee under-reporting and you have not received a notice from the IRS that the backup withholding has terminated, you must strike out the language in clause 2 of the above certification regarding withholding.)

I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

"The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding."

Certification if Awaiting Number: Under penalties of perjury, I certify (1) that a taxpayer identification number has not been issued to me, and that I mailed or delivered an application to receive a taxpayer identification number to the appropriate Internal Revenue Service Center or Social Security Administration Office (or I intend to mail or deliver an application in the near future), and (2) that I am not subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has notified me that I am no longer subject to back up withholding. I understand that if I do not provide a taxpayer identification number to the credit union within 60 days, the credit union is required to withhold 20 percent of all reportable payments thereafter made to me until I provide a number.

Joint Share Account Agreement (Not Transferable): Catholic Federal Credit Union is hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this account. The joint owners of this account hereby agree with each other and with said credit union that all sums now paid in on shares, or heretofore or hereafter paid in on shares by any of all of said joint owners to their credit as such joint owners with all accumulations thereon, are and shall be owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship and be subject to the withdrawal or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and discharge said credit union from any liability for such payment. The joint owners also agree to the terms and conditions of the account as established by the credit union from time to time. Any or all said joint owners may pledge all or any part of the shares in this account as collateral security to a loan or loans from the credit union. The right or authority of the credit union under agreement shall not be changed or terminated by said owners, or any of them except by written notice to said credit union, which shall not affect transactions theretofore made.

Closing Your Account Membership: There will be a $10.00 fee assessed to your Prime Daily Savings when the Account Membership is closed by the account holder/joint owner within the first 12 months of the account opening.

Policy for Minor Accounts

Minors that qualify for membership infants thru age 15: The minimum balance required to establish this account is $5.00. If the minor is an infant through 15 years of age the account is required to be opened jointly with an adult.

Any adult who is a joint owner on an account established for a minor who is an infant through age 15 must provide the credit union with a valid government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport to ensure compliance with Federal "Customer Identification Program" regulations.

The minor's TIN (Social Security Number) must be used and all named joint owners will have equal access to any funds in the account.

Funds in these accounts are owned by the minor and adult joint owner(s) jointly, with right of survivorship. These funds will be subject to the withdrawal or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them, or the survivor, or survivors shall be valid and discharge Catholic Federal Credit Union for any liability for such payment. Any and or all Bee Savings Club of said joint owners may pledge all or any part of the shares in this account as collateral for a loan or loans from Catholic Federal. Since the funds belong to all named owners, the funds are subject to the credit union's rights of offset.

Bee Savings Club: A Bee Savings Club account is like our Prime Daily Savings Account, the member must qualify for membership, and the minimum balance is $5.00. The Bee Savings Club account is for members 12 and under. There are many incentive programs to encourage children to make frequent deposits. An adult age 18 or older must be the contractual signer on the Bee Savings Club accounts.

Minors that qualify for membership age 16 through 17: May apply for the following services only if you have a qualified co-signer, age 18 or older:

- Checking account
- Debit Card
- Visa Credit Card
- Auto Loans

These minor accounts may be individual or joint debit accounts. A minor age 16 or 17 opening an account must provide the credit union with either (i) a valid government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport; or (ii) a valid school identification card (with photo), to ensure compliance with Federal "Customer Identification Program" regulations. The minor's TIN (Social Security Number) must be used and all named joint owners will have equal access to any funds in the account. Funds in these accounts are owned by the minor and adult joint owner(s) jointly, with right of survivorship. These funds will be subject to the withdrawal or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them, or the survivor, or survivors shall be valid and will discharge Catholic Federal Credit Union for any liability for such payment. Any and or all of the said joint owners may pledge all or any part of the shares in their account as collateral for a loan or loans from Catholic Federal Credit Union. Since the funds belong to all named owners, the funds are subject to the credit union's rights of offset.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, or the last surviving owner if there is more than one, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the beneficiary (ies) listed below who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her equal share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Prime Daily Savings

Establishing Account: A Prime Daily Savings may be established by filling out a Membership signature card.

Minimum Balance to Open Your Prime Daily Savings: A minimum $5.00 balance is required to open and maintain the Prime Daily Savings.

Deposits: After you have established your Prime Daily Savings, you may make additional deposits into that account, or establish other types of accounts as described below, at any time and in any amount. We may establish minimum amounts for deposits in your Prime Daily Savings or other accounts.

You can make deposits in person or by mail. You can arrange to have one or more of the following deposits made directly to your Prime Daily Savings: (1) payroll deduction deposits, (2) net pay deposits, (3) Social Security deposits, (4) pension plan deposits, (5) stock dividends or (6) other miscellaneous deposits. If you have an ATM card, you can also make a deposit through one of the automated teller machines equipped to accept deposits. By utilizing Online Banking, Express Telephone or Mobile Banking you can also transfer funds from one account to another.

Withdrawing Money from Your Prime Daily Savings Account: As long as you have money in your account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from your account by any method approved by the Credit Union.

Rate and Annual Percentage Yield ("APY"): Your Prime Daily Savings will earn what are known as dividends. Dividends are paid to this account. The Board of Directors sets the rate of interest for accounts. The rates are reviewed from time to time, and dividends are not guaranteed. This is a variable rate account. The Credit Union estimates a prospective dividend rate and prospective annual percentage yield (APY) on your Prime Daily Savings for each dividend period. The dividend rate and APY may change every calendar month as determined by the Board of Directors. The dividend rates will be available each business day at our office. The words "dividend" and "interest" may be used interchangeably in this Agreement.

Compounding: We compound your dividends, even though the law does not require it. Compounding is more favorable to you, because once dividends have been earned by your account they are added to the balance on which you will continue to earn dividends. Because we compound dividends, the actual yield on your account will be somewhat higher than the annual dividend rate. The Annual Percentage Yield (APY) will be posted along with the annual percentage rate (APR).

For this account type, the dividend period is monthly. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1 and the ending date of such dividend period is January 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. Dividends will be compounded monthly. The prospective dividend rate for each quarter will be determined in the last month of the previous quarter. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example above is February 1st.

Crediting Dividends: Dividends will be credited monthly. Dividends are not available to you until they have been credited to your account. Even though your account earns dividends every day, we don't credit them to your account until the first day of the subsequent dividend period. Dividends that are credited to your account will be added directly into your account. If you close your account before dividends are paid, you will not receive the accrued dividends.

Minimum Balance to Earn Dividends: You earn dividends on your Prime Daily Savings Account each day that your account balance is $5 or more. We reserve the right to adjust minimum deposit balance requirements from time to time. If you do not maintain the minimum deposit balance requirement, we reserve the right to close your account. Dividends will begin accruing on the first business day you place a deposit into your account. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

How Withdrawals Affect Dividends: Even though we don't credit your dividends to your account until the date specified above, we calculate them on a daily basis, which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day. Therefore, if you make a withdrawal, you won't receive any further dividends on that amount from the day you make the withdrawal until the day that dividends are credited.

Funds Availability: Funds from deposits you make into your Prime Daily Savings Account may not always be immediately available for withdrawal. Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

Transaction Limitations: During any one calendar month, you are permitted to make a total of six (6) withdrawals or transfers from your share (savings) accounts to another credit union account or to a third party by means of preauthorized withdrawal, automatic transfer, telephone order of instruction, Mobile Banking, Express Telephone (ET), Online Banking, Money Market Account sharedrafts, or by overdraft share transfers. If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any monthly period, your account may be subject to any applicable fees. Please note if you exceed these transfer limitations during any three calendar months over a 12-month period of time, your account will be subject to any applicable fees and we may reclassify your savings account to a Transaction Account. Contact the credit union at (989) 799-8744 if you have questions. Please see the Fee Schedule for applicable fees.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, or the last surviving owner if there is more than one, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the beneficiary (ies) listed below who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her equal share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Regular Share Draft (Checking) Agreement: I/We authorize Catholic Federal Credit Union to establish the Checking Account for me/us. The Credit Union is authorized to pay share drafts signed by me (or by any of us) and to charge all such payments against the shares in this Account. It is further agreed that:

- Only share drafts and other methods approved by the Credit Union may be used to make withdrawals from this Account.
- The Credit Union is under no obligation to pay a share draft that exceeds the fully paid and collected share balance in this Account unless overdraft reimbursement options are available.
- The Credit Union may pay a share draft on whatever day it is presented for payment, notwithstanding the date (or any limitation on the time of payment) appearing on the share draft.
- When paid, share drafts become the property of the Credit Union and will not be returned either with the periodic statement of this account or otherwise. Copies of such share drafts will be provided, if requested, and the credit union may charge a fee for providing such copies.
- Except for negligence, the Credit Union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or nonpayment of a share draft.
- Any objection respecting any item shown on a periodic statement of this Account is waived unless made in writing to the Credit Union before the end of 60 days after statement is mailed.
- This Account is subject to the Credit Union's right to require advance notice of withdrawal, as provided in its bylaws.
- This Account is also subject to such other terms, conditions and service charges as the Credit Union may establish from time to time.

If this Agreement is signed by more than one person, the signers shall be the joint owners of this Account which, in that event, shall be subject to additional terms and conditions.

Additional Terms and Conditions (Joint Checking Agreement): The Credit Union is hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed on the Share Draft Agreement in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this Account. The joint owners of this Account hereby agree with each other and with the Credit Union that all sums now paid in on shares, or heretofore or hereafter paid in on shares by any or all of said joint owners to their credit as such joint owners with all accumulations thereon, are and shall be owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship and be subject to withdraw or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and discharge the Credit Union from any liability for such payment. The right or authority of the Credit Union under this agreement shall not be changed or terminated by said owners, or any of them except by written notice to the Credit Union, which shall not affect transactions theretofore made.

Overdraft Reimbursement Options: In the event that the Credit Union receives a transaction that, if honored, puts the Account into an overdraft status, I/We authorize the Credit Union to reimburse itself through setoff from any of my/our accounts or, if applicable, my overdraft line of credit.

Deposits: After you have established your Checking Account, you may make additional deposits into that account at any time and in any amount subject to the terms of this Agreement and any other additional disclosures we provide you.

You can make deposits in person or by mail. You can also arrange to have one or more of the following deposits made directly to your Checking Account: (1) payroll deduction deposits, (2) net pay deposits, (3) Social Security deposits, (4) pension plan deposits, (5) stock dividends or (6) other miscellaneous deposits. If you have an automatic teller machine ATM/Debit card, you can also make a deposit through one of the automated teller machines equipped to accept deposits. You can also transfer funds from one account to another by utilizing Express Telephone or Online Banking.

Withdrawing Money from Your Checking Account: As long as you have money in your Checking Account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, the transaction limitations in this Agreement, including the Truth in Savings Disclosure, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from this account by any method approved by the Credit Union.

Checks: Checks can be ordered through the Credit Union or Online Banking. Your account will be charged for the cost of those checks, which will vary depending on the style ordered. You may select checks from the current styles available.

Transaction Limitations: No transaction limitations apply to this account unless otherwise stated.

Funds Availability: Funds from deposits you make into your Checking Account may not always be immediately available for withdrawal. Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit. Information about our funds availability policy is provided to you in the "Funds Availability" section of this disclosure.

Payment of Checks: The Credit Union is under no obligation to pay a check, which is more than 6 months old. Except for negligence, the Credit Union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or non-payment of a check. We may return checks drawn on your Checking Account unpaid for any reason that checks are normally returned, for example: insufficient funds, uncollected funds, or litigation.

Overdraft Protection: The Credit Union is under no obligation to pay a check you have written if it would result in the Checking Account being overdrawn (a check written against your Checking Account when insufficient available funds are not on deposit in the account is known as an NSF check). However, the Credit Union may pay the check and charge the amount of the resulting overdraft plus any applicable service charge against any account maintained at Credit Union. Payment of NSF items into overdraft is a discretionary service and can cease at any time without prior notice. Types of transactions that may be approved for an overdraft are a check, debit card, preauthorized withdrawals, automatic debits or other electronic transfers.

If you have been approved for an Overdraft Line of Credit, you may obtain advances under the terms and conditions of the Overdraft Line of Credit Agreement. Your account will be assessed an Overdraft Line of Credit Advance Fee noted in the fee schedule. The Credit Union has the option of honoring an NSF check or dishonoring it to avoid the creation of an overdraft. Honoring of past overdrafts does not obligate the Credit Union to honor them in the future. You agree to immediately deposit sufficient funds to cover any overdraft and service charges.

If this is a joint account, all of the joint owners are jointly and severally liable to repay the Credit Union the amount of any overdraft and service charges, regardless, which of the parties writes the draft that creates an overdraft.

Truncated Checks – Statements: Your canceled checks will not be returned to you; they will become Credit Union property and be held by us (“truncated”) for you. Your monthly statement will itemize your canceled checks by number, date of clearing and the amount of the draft. Any objection respecting any item shown on a periodic statement is waived unless made in writing to the Credit Union before the end of sixty days (60) after the statement is mailed. A copy of any check will be available to you as required by law. You can also view checks online by utilizing Online Banking services. There may be a fee to obtain a copy of a check.

Stop Payment Order Request: You may request a stop payment order on any check drawn on your account. To be binding, an order must be dated, signed within 14 days, and describe the account and check number and the exact amount. The stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order and you state the number of the account, number of the check, and its exact amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union to identify the check. If you give us incorrect or incomplete information, we will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the check. If the stop payment order is not received in time for us to act upon the order, we will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the check. If we re-credit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check, and to assist us in any legal action.

Duration of Order: A signed stop payment order is effective at the time we are requested to do so and will expire at 6 months duration. You can renew the stop payment order for an additional 6 month period if a new stop payment order is signed before the first one expires. There is a stop payment fee for each stop payment order we receive.

Liability: You generally may NOT stop payment on any certified check, teller’s check or any other check, or payment guaranteed by us. Even if payment of such an item is stopped, you may remain liable to any item holder, including us. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney’s fees, damages or claims related to our refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple party, account owner, payee, or endorser in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

Payment of Checks after Death: The Credit Union may, after the date of your death, pay checks drawn before death unless ordered to stop payment by the Personal Representative or other appropriate person claiming an interest in the account.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, or the last surviving owner if there is more than one, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the beneficiary (ies) listed below who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her equal share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Share Insurance: Information pertaining to Share Insurance is provided at the beginning of this agreement.

Interest Checking Account Terms and Conditions

Establishing Account and Rate: A Interest Checking Account will be established for those members who have applied for one and met qualifications set by Catholic Federal Credit Union (CFCU or the Credit Union). By signing the application, you consent the Credit Union pulling any necessary credit reports now or in the future in connection with collection efforts.

Minimum Balance to Open Your Interest Checking Account: There is no minimum balance required to open your Interest Checking Account, but you must maintain a basic membership share of $5.00 on deposit in your Prime Daily Savings Account to retain any other type of sub account.

Rate and Annual Percentage Yield (“APY”): Your Interest Checking Account will earn dividends (also known as interest). Your dividend rate and annual percentage yield (APY) may change. At our discretion, we may change the interest rate for your account at any time. Your current dividend rate is set forth in your Truth in Savings Disclosure. The dividend rates will be available each business day at our office and on our website. The words “dividend” and “interest” may be used interchangeably.

Minimum Balance to Earn a Dividend and Avoid Monthly Fee: You must maintain in your Interest Checking Account a minimum daily balance of $1,000 (Minimum Balance) to earn dividends and to avoid the imposition of a monthly fee. A monthly Checking Minimum Balance Fee will be imposed every month if the balance in your account falls below the Minimum Balance. See Fee Schedule. If you do not meet the Minimum Balance requirement on any day of the month, you will not earn dividends for that month. We reserve the right to adjust the Minimum Balance requirements from time to time. Dividends begin to accrue on the business day you deposit noncash items (for example, checks). We use the daily-balance method to calculate the interest on your account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

Compounding and Crediting Dividend: Dividends will be compounded daily and credited on the first day of the month. If you close your account before dividends are credited, you will not receive any accrued dividends.

Interest Checking Agreement: I/We authorize Catholic Federal Credit Union to establish the Interest Checking Account for me/us. The Credit Union is authorized to pay share drafts signed by me (or by any of us) and to charge all such payments against the shares in this Account. It is further agreed that:

- Only share drafts and other methods approved by the Credit Union may be used to make withdrawals from this Account.

- When paid, share drafts become the property of the Credit Union and will not be returned either with the periodic statement of this account or otherwise. Copies of such share drafts will be provided, if requested, and the credit union may charge a fee for providing such copies.
- Except for negligence, the Credit Union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or nonpayment of a share draft.
- Any objection respecting any item shown on a periodic statement of this Account is waived unless made in writing to the Credit Union before the end of 60 days after statement is mailed.
- This Account is subject to the Credit Union’s right to require advance notice of withdrawal, as provided in its bylaws.
- This Account is also subject to such other terms, conditions and service charges as the Credit Union may establish from time to time.

If these Interest Checking Account Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) are signed by more than one person, the signers shall be the joint owners of this account which, in that event, shall be subject to additional terms and conditions.

Additional Terms and Conditions (Joint Checking Agreement): The Credit Union is hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed on the Signature Card established in connection with the establishment of your account in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this Account. The joint owners of this account hereby agree with each other and with the Credit Union that all sums now paid in on shares, or heretofore or hereafter paid in on shares by any or all of said joint owners to their credit as such joint owners with all accumulations thereon, are and shall be owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship and be subject to withdraw or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and discharge the Credit Union from any liability for such payment. The right or authority of the Credit Union under these Terms shall not be changed or terminated by said owners, or any of them except by written notice to the Credit Union, which shall not affect transactions theretofore made.

Overdraft Reimbursement Options: I/We hereby authorize the Credit Union to reimburse itself of any draft drawn on this account which the Credit Union pays, to the extent which such draft exceeds the share balance in this account.

Deposits: After you have established your Interest Checking Account, you may make additional deposits into that account at any time and in any amount subject to the terms of these Terms and any other additional disclosures we provide you.

You can make deposits in person or by mail. Establishing Account and Rate: An Opportunity Checking Account will be established for those members 18 years or over who have applied for a Share Draft Checking Account, yet do not meet the underwriting guidelines for such an account, as set by the Credit Union. By signing the application, you consent to the necessary credit investigation.

Minimum Balance: There is no minimum balance required to open your Opportunity Checking Account, but you must maintain a basic membership share of $5.00 on deposit in your Prime Daily Savings Account to retain any other type of sub account.

Opportunity Checking Account Monthly Maintenance Fee: A monthly Maintenance Fee will be assessed on the first of each month.

Opportunity Checking Requirements: Catholic Federal Credit Union will offer an applicant an Opportunity Checking Account if they do not meet the requirements for the Share Draft Checking Account. Opportunity Checking Agreement: I/We authorize Catholic Federal Credit Union to establish the Opportunity Checking Account for me/us. - This Account is also subject to such other terms, conditions and service charges as the Credit Union may establish from time to time.

If this Agreement is signed by more than one person, the signers shall be the joint owners of this Account which, in that event, shall be subject to additional terms and conditions.

Additional Terms and Conditions (Joint Opportunity Checking Agreement): The Credit Union is hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed on the Opportunity Checking Agreement in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this Account. You can also transfer funds from one account to another by utilizing Express Telephone or Online Banking.

You will not be granted deposit capability of your ATM or Debit Card during the first 12-months your Opportunity Checking Account is open and active. After 12-months an account review will be completed and the credit union may grant deposit capability at that time.

Withdrawing Money from Your Checking Account: As long as you have money in your Opportunity Checking Account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, the transaction limitations in this Agreement, including the Truth in Savings Disclosure, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from this account by any method approved by the Credit Union.

If this is a joint account, all of the joint owners are jointly and severally liable to repay the Credit Union the amount of any overdraft and service charges, regardless, which of the parties writes the draft that creates an overdraft.

Individual Retirement Share Account

Establishing Account: A member completing an IRA Simplifier Form, and making a contribution may establish an Individual Retirement Account. These accounts are savings accounts that earn interest in the same manner as regular share accounts. Only the individual designated as the primary member on the account may be an owner of an IRA. This Account is not a multiple party account.

Minimum balance to open an IRA Share Account: There is no minimum balance required to open your Individual Retirement Share Account, but you must maintain a basic membership share of $5.00 on deposit in your Prime Daily Savings Account to retain any other type of sub account.

Deposits: After you have established your IRA, you may make additional deposits into that account at any time and in any amount. We may establish minimum amounts for deposits in these Accounts from time to time. Transaction restrictions may also exist and you will want to refer to your original Individual Retirement Account Agreement.

Withdrawing Money from Your IRA: As long as you have money in your account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, the transaction limitations in this Agreement, including the Truth in Savings Disclosure, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from your account by filling out the appropriate IRA Withdrawal form for reporting purposes. There are no Over the Counter withdrawals for this account.

Rate and Annual Percentage Yield ("APY"): Your Individual Retirement Share Account will earn what are known as dividends. Dividends are paid to this account. The Board of Directors sets the rate of interest for accounts. The rates are reviewed from time to time, and dividends are not guaranteed. This is a variable rate account. The Credit Union estimates a prospective dividend rate and prospective annual percentage yield (APY) on your Individual Retirement Share Account for each dividend period. The dividend rate and APY may change every calendar month as determined by the Board of Directors. The dividend rates will be available each business day at our office. The words "dividend" and "interest" may be used interchangeably in this Agreement.

Compounding Dividends: We compound your dividends, even though the law does not require it. Compounding is more favorable to you, because once dividends have been earned on your account they are added to the balance on which you will continue to earn dividends. Because we compound dividends, the actual yield on your account will be somewhat higher than the annual dividend rate. The Annual Percentage Yield (APY) will be posted along with the annual dividend rate.

Dividend Period: For this account type, the dividend period is monthly. For example, the beginning date of the first interest period of the calendar year is January 1st and the ending date of such interest period is January 31st. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. Dividends will be compounded monthly. The prospective dividend rate for each month will be determined in the last week of the previous dividend period.

Crediting Dividends: Dividends will be credited monthly. Dividends are not available to you until they have been credited to your account. Even though your account earns dividends every day, we don't actually credit it to your account until the first day of the subsequent dividend period. Dividends that are credited to your account will be added directly into your account. If you close your account before dividends are paid, you will not receive any accrued dividends.

Minimum Balance to Earn Dividend: You earn dividends on your IRA each day that your account balance is more than $1.00. We reserve the right to adjust minimum deposit balance requirements from time to time.

How Withdrawals Affect Dividends: Even though we don't credit your dividends to your account until the date specified above, we calculate it on a daily basis. Therefore, if you make a withdrawal, you won't receive any further dividends on that amount from the day you make the withdrawal until the day that dividends are credited.

Funds Availability: Funds from deposits you make into your IRA Account may not always be immediately available for withdrawal. Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

Accrual and Nature of Dividends: Dividends will begin to accrue on the first business day you place a deposit into your account. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

Transaction Limitations: Please refer to your original Individual Retirement Account Agreement. IRA's have transaction and withdrawal restrictions.

Outgoing Transfer Request: There will be a service fee assessed for each Outgoing Transfer Request.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the named beneficiary (ies) who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

IRA Super Saver Club Account

Establishing Account and Rate: A member completing an IRA Simplifier Form, and making a contribution may establish a Super Saver Individual Retirement Account (IRA). These accounts are savings accounts that earn interest in the same manner as regular share accounts. Only the individual designated as the primary member on the account may be an owner of an IRA. This Account is not a multiple party account. The interest rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) for the IRA Super Saver Club Account Money Market Account may change every quarter as determined by the Credit Union Board of Directors.

Minimum Balance to Open Your IRA Super Saver Club Account: A minimum $25,000 balance is required to open and maintain your IRA Super Saver Club Account. If your balance falls below the required minimum we ask that you bring your account balance to satisfactory level. If after 30 days the balance remains below the required minimum we reserve the right to close your IRA Super Saver Club Account.

Deposits: After you have established your IRA Super Saver Club Account, you may make additional deposits into that account at any time and in any amount.

Withdrawing Money from Your IRA Super Saver Club Account: As long as you have money in your account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, the transaction limitations in this Agreement, including the Truth in Savings Disclosure, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from your account by filling out the appropriate IRA Withdrawal form for reporting purposes for an IRA. There are no Over the Counter withdrawals for this account.

Rate and Annual Percentage Yield ("APY"): Your Super Saver Club Account will earn what are known as dividends. Dividends are paid to this account. The Board of Directors sets the rate of interest for accounts. The rates are reviewed from time to time, and dividends are not guaranteed. This is a variable rate account. The Credit Union estimates a prospective dividend rate and prospective annual percentage yield (APY) on your Super Saver Club Account for each dividend period. The dividend rate and APY may change every calendar quarter as determined by the Board of Directors. The dividend rates will be available each business day at our office. The words "dividend" and "interest" may be used interchangeably in this Agreement.

Account Structure:

Tier 1 = $25,000 to $49,999
Tier 2 = $50,000 plus

Compounding and Crediting Dividend: Dividends will be calculated on the actual daily balance without compounding and credited quarterly. If your balance is in excess of $50,000, dividends on the first $50,000 will be calculated at the Tier 1 rate and dividends on the amount in excess of $50,000 will be calculated at the Tier 2 rate. Dividends are not available to you until they have been credited to your account. Even though your account earns dividends every day, we don't actually credit them to your account until the first day of the subsequent quarter. Dividends that are credited to your account will be added directly into your account. If you close your account before dividends are paid, you will not receive any accrued dividends.

Minimum Balance to Earn Dividend: You earn dividends on your IRA Super Saver Club Account each day that your account balance is more than $25,000. We reserve the right to adjust minimum deposit balance requirements from time to time. If you do not maintain any such minimum deposit balance requirements we may close your IRA Super Saver Club Account. If during any day of the quarter, your account falls below the required minimum daily balance; your account will be subject to loss of dividends for that quarter.

Dividend Period: For this account, the dividend period is quarterly, for example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1, and the end date of such dividend period is March 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example above is April 1st.

Accrual of Dividends on Non-Cash Deposits: Dividends will begin to accrue on the first business day you place non-cash items (for example, checks) to your account.

How Withdrawals Affect Dividends: Even though we don't credit your dividends to your account until the date specified above, we calculate it on the actual daily balance. Therefore, if you make a withdrawal, you won't receive any further interest on that amount from the day you make the withdrawal until the day that interest is credited.

Funds Availability: Funds from deposits you make into your IRA Super Saver Club Account may not always be immediately available for withdrawal. Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

Nature of Dividends: Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

Transaction Limitations: There is a limit of three (3) withdrawals per month from this Super Saver IRA Account. IRA's have transaction and withdrawal restrictions. Please refer to your original Individual Retirement Account Agreement.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the named beneficiary (ies) who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Share Insurance: Information pertaining to Share Insurance is provided at the beginning of this agreement.

Term Share Certificate / IRA Certificate Account

Establishing Account and Rate: 3-month Share certificate Accounts, 6-month Share certificate Accounts, 12-Month Share certificate Accounts, 18-Month Share certificate Accounts, 24-Month Share certificate Accounts, 30-Month Share certificate Accounts, 36-Month Share certificate Accounts, and 48-Month Share certificate Accounts, as well as any special term offered through the Credit Union (we will refer to these as "Certificates") may be established by a member accepting the Terms and Conditions and making the required minimum deposit. Certificates are savings accounts (also known as "Term Share Accounts") that generally earn a higher rate of interest than other savings accounts. The interest rate and APY for Certificates is fixed. Once you purchase a Certificate, your interest rate will not be changed or recalculated during the term of that certificate. The APY assumes that interest earned will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal from this account will reduce earnings.

Minimum Balance to Open Your Term Share Certificate/IRA Certificate Account: A minimum balance of $500 is required to open a Youth Share Certificate. A minimum balance of $1,000 is required to open all other Share Certificates.

Withdrawing Money from Your Term Share Certificate Account: As long as you have money in your account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, the transaction limitations in this Agreement, including the Truth in Savings Disclosure, and the Credit Union's Bylaws, money can be withdrawn from your account by any method approved by the Credit Union. If you withdraw any principal before the maturity date of the Certificate, you will be assessed a penalty of 90 days of dividends for certificate terms less than 12 months; 180 days of dividends for certificate terms of 23 months – 12 months; and 365 days for certificate terms of 24 months or more. IRA withdrawals need special handling for reporting purposes.

Rate and Annual Percentage Yield ("APY"): Your Account will earn a monthly dividend, at the rate established by the Credit Union's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors reviews the annual percentage yield (APY) it pays on your Certificate Account each dividend period. The dividend rate and APY may change every month as determined by the Board of Directors. The dividend rates will be available each business day at our office.

Compounding Dividends: Compounding is more favorable to you, because once dividends have been earned on your account they are added to the balance on which you will continue to earn dividends. Because we compound dividends, the actual yield on your account will be somewhat higher than the annual dividend rate. The Annual Percentage Yield (APY) will be posted along with the annual dividend rate. For this account type, the dividend period for a certificate of 3 to 11 months, is monthly, for certificates from 12-48 months it is quarterly. Dividends will be compounded monthly or quarterly as applicable.

Crediting Dividends: Dividends will be credited monthly or quarterly depending on the term of the certificate. 3-11 months is monthly, 12-48 months is quarterly. Dividends are not available to you until they have been credited to your account. Even though your account earns dividends every day, we don't actually credit it to your account until the first day of the subsequent dividend period. Dividends that are credited to your account will be added directly into your account unless you make prior arrangements at the time of purchasing the certificate. If you close your account before dividends are paid, you will not receive any accrued dividends.

Minimum Balance to Earn Dividend: You earn dividends on your Certificate each day that your account balance is more than $500 for Youth and Coverdell IRA, or $1,000 for all other types of share certificates. We reserve the right to adjust minimum deposit balance requirements from time to time. Dividends will begin to accrue on the first business day you place a deposit into your account. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

How Withdrawals Affect Dividends: Even though we don't credit your dividends to your account until the date specified above, we calculate it on a daily basis. Therefore, if you make a withdrawal, you won't receive any further dividends on that amount from the day you make the withdrawal until the day that dividends are credited.

Funds Availability: Funds from deposits you make into your Certificate may not always be immediately available for withdrawal. Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

Maturity / Renewal Policy: Certificate does not automatically renew. At the time of maturity the funds will be deposited into the primary owner's Prime Daily Savings or Sub-Share Account elected by the member at account opening.

Beneficiary Information and Provisions: Upon the death of the owner, the funds covered by this agreement shall become the property of the named beneficiary (ies) who is alive at that time. In addition, each such beneficiary shall have the power to withdraw only his or her share of the remaining account balance together with any accumulations on such amount. No beneficiary shall have any right under any circumstances to change the terms and conditions of this agreement.

The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to open a Fiduciary Account when such documentation does not derive from the authority of the laws of the State of Michigan.

Distribution of Accounts: If you have opened an account for a Protected Person, you as Fiduciary understand and agree that the Credit Union may distribute funds pursuant to the terms of the most recently dated Letters of Authority or other documentation on file at the Credit Union, and you, on behalf of the Protected Person forever indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless for distributions made in good faith reliance on those Letters of Authority or other documentation. Funds Availability Policy

The following information describes the Credit Union's policy of holding items deposited into an S4 Checking Account (also known as "transaction accounts") before funds are made available to you for withdrawal. This is what is called a Funds Availability Policy. Generally, transaction accounts are accounts which would permit an unlimited number of payments by check or other order to third persons, and also an unlimited number of telephone and preauthorized transfers to third persons or other accounts you may have with us. Funds availability policies for accounts that are not transaction accounts are described elsewhere in this Agreement.

In general, our policy is to make funds from your deposits made to your transaction accounts available to you on the day we receive your deposit. At that time, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. Please ask if you are unsure about when a particular deposit will be available for withdrawal.

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and Credit Union-observed holidays. If you make a deposit before closing time on a business day that we are open, we will consider that to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after closing time or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

Longer Delays May Apply. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the day of your deposit. Funds may not be available until the second business day. The first $200 of your deposits, however, will be made available on the first business day.

If your deposit is made directly to one of our employees, and if we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit.

In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day.
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Deposits at Automated Teller Machines. Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at automated teller machines (ATMs) may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. If you make a deposit at an ATM on a day Catholic Federal Credit Union offices are not open, we may consider the deposit made on the next business day we are open.

Holds on Other Funds (Check Cashing). If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available had you deposited it.

Holds on Other Funds (Other Account). If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately, but delay your ability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposit to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the seventh business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than U.S. Treasury checks) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit.

“Same-Day” Availability

The following checks will be given “same-day” availability, if payable to you and all endorsement guidelines are met. Same-day availability means that no holds will be placed on the check. These checks include:

- U.S. Treasury Checks which include social security, civil service, military payments, and federal agency check salaries, IRS returns, and VA compensation and railroad annuities.
- U.S. Postal Money Orders.
- Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank checks.
- State of Michigan and local Michigan government checks including city, county, township and village checks.
- “Depository checks” including local cashiers checks that can be verified and certified checks.

Wire Transfer Agreement and Notification (Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A)

The following rules shall apply to all wire transfers services provided by the Credit Union.

Catholic Federal Credit Union may accept, on your behalf, payments to your account that have been submitted by Fedwire. Your rights and obligations with respect to such transfers shall be governed and construed in accordance with Regulation J, Subpart B—Funds Transfers Through Fedwire. These regulations and state law are applicable to funds transfers involving your account.

If you give us a payment order that identifies a beneficiary (the person to whom you are wiring funds) by name and account or some other identifying number (such as a Social Security, Taxpayer I.D. or drivers license number), we may pay the beneficiary on the basis of the number provided to us by you and consider that number to be proper identification. This will be true even if the number you provided to us identifies a person different from the named beneficiary, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation. For security reasons you must also supply us with a password to take wire transfer orders over the phone. These must be submitted in writing before any transactions can occur.

You may not be provided with separate notification each time we receive a wire transfer into your account. We will provide you with notification of an incoming wire transfer as part of your periodic statement. In the event we accept payments to your account through one or more Automated Clearing Houses (“ACH”), the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association (“NACHA”) will be applicable to ACH transactions involving your account. These rules do not require that we provide you with next day notice of receipt of an ACH item. Therefore, we will provide you with notification of the receipt of these items as part of your periodic statement.

In addition, if we are ever obligated to pay interest on the amount of the transfer, you will be paid interest on a daily basis equal to the current dividend rate that is otherwise applicable to the account from which the funds transfer should have occurred. In the event we are ever liable to you for damages due to a transfer, your damages will be limited to actual damages only. We will not be responsible for incidental or consequential damages, court costs or attorneys fees, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

We may accept, on your behalf, payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses and that are not subject to the Electronic Funds Transfer Act (“Regulation E”). Your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be governed and construed in accordance with the applicable Federal Reserve Bank Operating Circular. Whenever an ACH is used as part of a transaction, its rules will govern that part of the transaction. Where none of the above stated rules apply, the transactions contemplated by this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Michigan, including Article 4A of the Michigan Uniform Commercial Code.

Credit given by us to you with respect to an ACH entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for the credit entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive final settlement, you are hereby notified that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with the credit entry. Moreover, you are hereby notified that the party making payment to you (originator) shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of the credit entry.

Your Rights and our Responsibilities after we receive your Written Notice: We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the statement was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to send statements to you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any unquestioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to tell us within ten days that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your statement. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow those rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement was correct.

Ownership: All ATM Cards, Debit Cards, PINS, Online Banking, Mobile Banking and ET Express Telephone passwords remain the property of the Credit Union and may be revoked or canceled at any time without giving you prior notice. If this agreement is terminated, you agree to surrender any card(s) to us. You agree not to use your card for a transaction that would cause your account balance to go below zero. You also agree not to make an ET Express Telephone system, Mobile Banking, or Online Banking transaction that would cause your account balance to go below zero. We will not be required to complete any such transaction, but if we do, you agree to pay us the amount of the improper withdrawal, or transfer, upon request.

Enforcement: In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce this Agreement or collect amounts owing as a result of any account transaction, the Credit Union is entitled to attorneys' fees and costs, including fees on any appeal.

Other Terms and Conditions

The following paragraphs apply to all Accounts opened with the Credit Union.

Agreement: This Agreement shall be effective and shall govern all deposit accounts with us. By signing a signature card, making deposits or withdrawals, or leaving amounts on deposit, you agree to the terms of this Agreement and to all amendments to this Agreement. This Agreement shall supersede all previous agreements for such accounts.

Amendment: Credit Union may change any term of this Agreement at any time without prior notice. Member may close the Account if it does not agree to the changes; if Member continues to use the Account or keep the Account open after the effective date of such change, Member will be deemed to have agreed to the changes.

Notice of Name or Address Changes: You are responsible for notifying us of any address or name change. Whenever we are required to send you notice, the Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us in writing. Once the Credit Union receives a return paper statement due to an incorrect address, the Credit Union reserves the right to assess a monthly Return Statement fee until the address is updated or the account is closed. The Credit Union requires all notices of change in address or name to be in writing. Notices to us should be sent to:

Catholic Federal Credit Union
P. O. Box 6338
Saginaw MI 48608-6338

Notices: All notices under this Agreement will be sent to Member to the address shown on its periodic statement. Notice by or to any Authorized Signer shall be deemed notice by or to all. Credit Union reserves the right not to send notice for accounts it considers inactive.

Any written notice sent to the Credit Union is effective when Credit Union receives it. Any written notice Credit Union gives to Member is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to Member at its periodic statement mailing address.

We reserve the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. We will mail notice to you at least thirty (30) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing your account and any future changes to those regulations.

Severability: If any of this Agreement is found by any other court or regulatory body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part for any reason whatsoever, the authority of the remaining provisions or portions hereof shall not be affected thereby.

Waiver: Credit Union may waive any of these provisions at its sole discretion, but any such waiver will apply only on that occasion. If Credit Union chooses to waive any provision, it will not be bound to waive the same provision or any other provision on another occasion.

Offset: Member agrees that Credit Union may, at any time and without prior notice, set off funds in any Account, or any other funds in Credit Union's possession, in which Member has an ownership interest for the payment of debt or liabilities, including loans, to the fullest extent permitted by law and regardless of the source of the funds in Member's Account. Member understands such an action could result in an interest penalty or dishonor of subsequent debits.

Changes: Member agrees to notify Credit Union immediately in writing of any change in its name, address, or any Joint Signer(s) on an Account. Credit Union may require documentation evidencing this change and a new Signature Card before any change becomes effective. If a Joint Owner changes, Credit Union may continue to honor items and instructions received previous to its receipt of notice of change in writing. In some instances Credit Union may require Member to close its Account or provide Credit Union with stop payment orders to prevent transactions from occurring. There may be a delay in implementing a change in the Joint Owner(s) on Credit Union records, and Member agrees that Credit Union will be given a reasonable time to make any and all necessary changes.

Information About Member's Accounts: Member authorizes Credit Union to share information concerning its Accounts with other entities as permitted or required by law, including affiliates of Credit Union.

Section Headings: Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not govern the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by the laws, including applicable principles of contract law, and regulations of the State of Michigan, except as superseded by federal laws and regulations, by the Credit Union's Bylaws, and by local clearinghouse rules. Unless prohibited by applicable law, any action brought pursuant to this Agreement against Credit Union must be brought in the local state District Court or state Circuit Court in the jurisdiction of the Credit Union's Main Office.

Legal Process: Credit Union will comply with any writ of attachment, execution, garnishment, tax levy, restraining order, subpoena, warrant or other legal process which it believes (correctly or incorrectly) to be valid. Member agrees that Credit Union may honor any legal process which is served by mail or facsimile transmission, or at any of Credit Union's offices, even if the law requires personal delivery at a specific office. Member agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Credit Union harmless from any and all actions, claims, liability, losses, costs (including attorney's fees) and damages associated with its compliance with such process. Credit Union may not pay interest on any funds it holds or sets aside in response to legal process. If Credit Union is not fully reimbursed for its record research, photocopying, and handling costs by the party that served the process, Credit Union may charge such amounts to an Account in addition to Credit Union's minimum legal process fee. Any legal process against an Account is subject to Credit Union's lien and security interest.

Freezing Member's Accounts, Conflicting Demands/Disputes: If Credit Union determines that a dispute has arisen or there is uncertainty regarding the ownership or control of an Account or its funds or Credit Union believes a transaction affecting the Account may be fraudulent or may violate any law or regulation, or is subject to a court order requiring Credit Union to hold the funds, or Credit Union is requested by a state or local agency to freeze the account or reject a transaction Credit Union shall have the right, at Credit Union's sole discretion to: (1) freeze the Account and refuse transactions until Credit Union receives written proof (in form and substance satisfactory to it) of each person's right and authority over the Account and its funds or a court order authorizing Credit Union to release the funds; (2) refuse transactions and return checks marked "Refer to Maker" (or similar language); (3) require the signatures of all Joint Owners for the withdrawal of funds, the closing of an Account, or any change in the Account regardless of the number of Joint Owners on the Account; (4) request instructions from a court of competent jurisdiction at Member's expense regarding the Account or transaction; and/or (5) continue to honor checks and other instructions given to Credit Union by persons who appear as Joint Owners according to Credit Union's records. The existence of the rights set forth above shall not impose an obligation on Credit Union to assert such rights or to deny a transaction.

Security Interest: Member grants Credit Union, to the extent allowed by law, a continuing security interest in Member's Account and its proceeds, and any of Member's funds or property in Credit Union's possession, to secure present and future indebtedness owed to Credit Union.

Indemnity: If by following Member's instructions Credit Union is exposed to a claim or suit by an adverse claimant, Member shall hold Credit Union harmless and indemnify Credit Union from any such losses, expenses, liabilities, or damages including actual attorney's fees. If Member asks Credit Union to follow instructions that Credit Union believes might expose Credit Union to claims, suits, losses, expenses, liabilities or damages, whether directly or indirectly, Credit Union may refuse to follow Member's instructions, or may require a bond or other protections.

Member agrees to indemnify and hold Credit Union harmless from any liability loss, costs, or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to the extent permitted by law, that it incurs as a result of any dispute involving Member's Account, including any loss, costs, or expenses resulting from a delay in the forwards collection or return of any check Member deposits caused by improper placement of endorsements or other material on the back of the check that affects the ability to endorse the items as required by federal regulations. Member authorizes Credit Union to deduct any such loss, costs, expenses, or attorney's fees from its Account without prior notice.

In the event Credit Union becomes a party to any legal proceedings between Member and any third party or between members of Member, Member agrees to indemnify Credit Union and hold it harmless from any liability for any loss, costs, or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to the extent permitted by law, that is incurred as a result of any such proceeding which are subject to Credit Union's right of offset. This obligation includes situations that cause Credit Union, in good faith, to seek the advice of counsel, whether or not it actually becomes involved in a dispute.

Assignment/Pledge/Transfer: Member may not assign, transfer, pledge, or grant a security interest in Member's Account to others without Credit Union's prior written consent.

Accrual of Dividends on Non-Cash Deposits: Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you deposit non-cash items (for example, checks) to your account.

Endorsement: All endorsements placed on the reverse side of any check or draft which you deposit to your account must be placed so that they are on the left side of the item when looking at it from the front and must be placed so they do not go beyond an area located 1 and ½ inches from the left edge of the item when looking at it from the front. The Credit Union may refuse to accept any item that does not meet this requirement, and, if the Credit Union does accept it, you agree that you are completely responsible for any loss we incur which is premised on an endorsement not meeting this requirement, including any court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

Dormant Accounts: The Credit Union shall define a dormant account as an account on which there has been no activity, other than the posting of dividends for a period of 12 months. Beginning the 13th month and each month thereafter, there will be a fee assessment to each dormant account. Michigan Escheats Law requires the Credit Union to turn these funds over to the State after three years of no activity. Before turning funds from inactive accounts over to the State of Michigan, the Credit Union will send a notice as required by Michigan law advising you of your rights.

Statement: Member will receive a periodic statement showing the transactions on its Account. The frequency of periodic statement depends on the type of Account and activity. Credit Union reserves the right not to send statements for Accounts Credit Union considers inactive for 12 months, or for those Accounts on which it does not have a valid address on file.

Member is in the best position to discover and report any discrepancies including unauthorized debits to its Accounts. Member agrees to notify Credit Union immediately of any error, discrepancy or unauthorized transaction it discovers on any periodic statement, notice or check Credit Union provides to Member. If Member fails to do so, it may become responsible for the losses resulting from such failure. Member is responsible for monitoring and reviewing the activity of its Accounts and, if applicable, the work of its employees, agents, and accountants.

If Member discovers an error, forgery, alteration or any other unauthorized activity involving its Accounts, it must notify Credit Union at the telephone or address provided on Member's periodic statement. Member can also notify Credit Union in person at any branch. Member agrees to provide Credit Union with a written statement of the relevant facts, including a description of the transaction or error, and the identity of any suspected wrongdoers. Member must notify Credit Union no later than 60 days after Credit Union sends the first periodic statement on which the error problem appeared.

If Member claims a credit or refund because of an unauthorized transaction, Member agrees to provide Credit Union with a declaration containing whatever reasonable information Credit Union requires regarding Member's Account, the transaction and the circumstances surrounding the claimed loss. Member also agrees to make a report to the police and to provide Credit Union with a copy of the report, upon request. Credit Union will have a reasonable period of time to investigate the circumstances surrounding any claimed loss. During Credit Union's investigation, it will have obligation to provisionally credit the Member's Account, unless otherwise required by law.

Unless the law requires otherwise, Credit Union's maximum liability to Member will never exceed the amount of actual damages proven by Member. Credit Union's liability will be reduced: (a) by the amount of the loss that is caused by Member's own negligence or lack of care; (b) to the extent that damages could not have been avoided by Credit Union's exercise of ordinary care; and (c) by any loss recovery that Member obtains from third parties (apportioned in accordance with this provision). Credit Union will not be liable for any loss that is caused in part by Member's negligence if Credit Union acted with ordinary care. Unless otherwise required by law, Credit Union will not be liable for incidental, special or consequential damages, including loss of profits and/or opportunity, or for attorney's fees incurred by Member, even if it was aware of the possibility of such damages.

Telephone Requests: Member agrees (for joint accounts, all joint owners agree jointly and severally) that funds in any of Member's accounts with us can be transferred upon the telephone request of any signer on the account. Credit Union shall not be responsible for any loss incurred as a result of acting upon or executing any request, order or instruction Credit Union believes to be genuine. Furthermore, Credit Union may refuse to execute any telephone request or order.

Joint Accounts: If two or more parties have signed a membership account application, Member(s) are creating, and intend to create, a "joint tenancy with rights of survivorship." That is, you as the owners of the account agree with yourselves and the Credit Union that all sums paid in shares or other deposits (as applicable), together with all accumulations, prior to now or hereafter, less setoffs as allowed by law for any sums due the Credit Union by any party, shall be owned by all of you jointly with full right of survivorship, and shall be subject to withdrawal or receipt by any of you in whole or in part. Payment to any of you or the survivor(s) of you, or your personal representatives, administrators or assigns of the last survivor(s) of you, shall be valid and discharge the Credit Union from any liability for such payment and amount. Each signer appoints each other signer to be his or her irrevocable attorney in fact: to make deposits to the account; to endorse, for cash or deposit, any checks or other items whether payable to one of the signers alone or with others; and to receive and receipt for all funds all without obligation to us to inquire into the source or application of funds. To induce us to act there under, each person signing the membership application jointly and singly agrees to hold the Credit Union harmless and indemnify us from loss, cost, and damage in all respects in connection with any of the foregoing, including court costs and attorney's fees, except as may be limited by applicable law. Unless specifically prohibited in writing from doing so, any or all of the joint owners may pledge all or part of the shares or deposits in the account as collateral for security on a loan(s). No authority or obligation of the Credit Union may be changed or terminated by one or more of the joint owners without prior written notice to the Credit Union, and any such change or termination shall affect transactions already made. Further, each joint owner is subject to the terms and disclosures of this Agreement, and hereby acknowledges receipt of the Agreement.

Except as modified in this Agreement, joint accounts shall be subject to and governed by PA 41 of the Public Acts of 1968, as amended, being MCLA 490.51, and commonly known as the Credit Union Multiple-Party Accounts Act.

POD Account Designation: A Payable on Death (POD) account designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that a single or multiple party account so designated is payable to the owner(s) during his, her or their lifetimes and, when the last account owner dies, payable to any named and surviving POD beneficiary/payee. Once an account becomes payable, all then-living beneficiaries/payees own the account jointly without rights of survivorship. Credit Union is not obligated to notify any beneficiary/payee of the existence of any account or the vesting of the beneficiary/payee's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law.

Transaction Limitations: During any one calendar month, you are permitted to make a total of six (6) withdrawals or transfers from your share (savings) accounts to another credit union account or to a third party by means of preauthorized withdrawal, automatic transfer, telephone order of instruction, Mobile Banking, Express Telephone (ET), Online Banking, Money Market Account sharedrafts, or by overdraft share transfers. If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any monthly period, your account may be subject to any applicable fees. Please note if you exceed these transfer limitations during any three calendar months over a 12-month period of time, your account will be subject to any applicable fees and we may reclassify your savings account to a Transaction account. Contact the credit union at (989) 799-8744 if you have questions. Please see the Fee Schedule for applicable fees.
